

SUCCESS PLANNER

BE THE BEST VERSION OF YOURSELF

Shuchi Sharma
SUCCESS COACH

SUCCESS PLANNER

LUCK IS WHEN PREPARATION MEETS OPPORTUNITY

Go confidently in the direction of your dreams...

Live the life you've imagined! This quote by Thoreau is so very relevant in the current challenging times.

Today, success means having the opportunity to give your time and energy to the things that matter to you most in life.

With that in mind, here is a SUCCESS PLANNING GUIDE for you to get from where you are, to where you want to be.

THIS IS A SUCCESS PLANNING GUIDE JUST FOR YOU

How to do it?

First of all, set your intention to learn from the past and try to let go of things that no longer serve you. Then release negative thought patterns and take an empowered step forward by reflecting on the year gone by, and finally set intentions for the coming year and define ambitious goals for yourself. By preparing daily, weekly and monthly schedules to all your tasks and the things you want to accomplish, and working on THIS plan every day is the sure route to success!

Lets begin the first step

SUCCESS PLANNER

1. REFLECT AND REVIEW YOUR PAST YEAR

Many of us just go through a whole year, without even stopping to notice and evaluate what wins we had, what learnings we needed and what mistakes we made. Lets use one of the most powerful tools to increase our self-awareness-- Reflection. Reflect on how you spent your time in the last year.

Answer the questions that follow intuitively!

Think about what "you are most proud of" --even if its a small or seemingly insignificant achievement.

Recognize what energized you and what drained you.

Start by identifying what worked for you and what did not.

This will get the process started for you.

You can start by listing down your 3 big or small wins & accomplishments of the last year.

What were your best moments? Celebrate your accomplishments.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

SUCCESS PLANNER

Now try and list down 3 areas of growth from the lessons you learnt. Start by writing down about the three areas in your life that you need to work upon.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What were your most difficult moments? What did the disappointments teach you?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What are you most grateful for?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What are you now ready to let go of? Do you need to forgive someone? What do you need to accept in your life, for you to move on? Don't remain stuck in the past, move on...that's what a fresh beginning is all about!

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

2. SET YOUR INTENTIONS TO SUCCEED IN THE COMING YEAR

Once you set your intentions to succeed, you will realize that a lot is possible! What would be the one area of your life that you would like to work on? And what is the priority that you attach to other areas? Pick a number on a scale of 1-10 for the important categories of your life like...

Family

Friends and community

Love and relationships

Health and fitness

Work and profession

Finances

Hobbies and creativity

Travel and exploration

Personal growth

SUCCESS PLANNER

And now look back and reflect how did you spend your time? Was it on the things that are a priority to you? Did it lead to success, or did you fall short? Do this for every area of your life and see the time you spent on those activities.

Now, spend time in planning for achieving your intentions. As has been rightly said, "An hour of planning can save you 10 hours of doing" (Dale Carnegie)

Think of how you would like to spend your upcoming year...

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.

Lets move to the next step now...

3. DEFINE AMBITIOUS GOALS AND WRITE THEM DOWN

Decide exactly what it is that you want in every area of life. Try to “see” yourself living your ideal life. Imagine that you have all the education and all the experience that you need. Imagine that there are no limitations on what you can be, or what you want to do, to accomplish any goal that you can set for yourself.

Let’s remember that this is the only one life that we have... and it does not serve you or anyone else if you play small. Therefore, based on your reflection, go outside of your comfort zone, and make goals for the new year that push you to get there. Make sure your vision is so clear and powerful, that you would follow it even if there were setbacks and failures along the way. Make big goals and break them down into shorter term goals, one month or three-month goals.

And of course, try and ensure that your goals are Specific, Measurable, Attainable Realistic and Time-bound. Write them down and set a deadline for each of them.

SUCCESS PLANNER

Brian Tracy recommends in his book entitled "Goals!" that we need to write our goals with 3 Ps in mind:

First P as in In the present tense,

Second P as in Using positive statements,

Third P as in the personal use of "I" instead of saying things like "My goal is...".

So, ask yourself the very important questions:

- What exactly do I want to accomplish?

What would I attempt to do if I knew I wouldn't fail?

Write down your goals here

.
. .
. .
. .
. .
. .

4. PREPARE A DAILY, WEEKLY AND MONTHLY SCHEDULE

Once you have your goals set out, start to work out what you need to do to make them happen? List the steps you need to take to achieve your goal. Make an exhaustive list of steps that you need to take to get there. As you complete this , you will suddenly begin to see that your goals are more attainable than you thought they were.

Next identify the obstacles that you will have to overcome to achieve your goals. What is the knowledge and information and skills you need to accomplish your goals? Think deeply about what you need to do in order to reach where you want to get. You can do a personal SWOT analysis and assess your personal Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats to find out where you stand in the way to achieve your goals.

Most importantly, identify the one defining goal that will take priority over the rest in the coming year. List down what you need to do to accomplish that one goal, because it is important to you. By focusing on one main goal, you can improve your success of achievement, instead of spreading your energy by focusing on many goals.

SUCCESS PLANNER

And of course, NOW make a commitment towards accomplishing your goal. Write down at least three or four specific actions that you can take. Prioritize each activity by asking yourself, "If I could only do one task on this list, which one task would be the most valuable use of my time today?" Once you have decided on your most important task, concentrate single-mindedly on that one task until it is done. Your results depend entirely upon your ability to select your most important task and then to work on it single-mindedly, without diversion or distraction. Write it down, that is the single most important thing for you to do to succeed.

- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .

5. WORK ON THIS PLAN EVERYDAY

Use the priority listing to plan out each day, week, and month in advance if you can. The more detailed you are when you plan your actions, the easier it will be to accomplish your goals.

Read your goals every day, when you go to sleep at night and when you get up in the morning. Keep them in your mind all the time. And when you start your work, start working on your main goal first...then go on to other goals and priorities. Only when you have completed your top three priorities, should you go on to the next ones.

Reflect regularly on your goals and keep them in the forefront of your mind all the time. Say them to yourself every night and every morning and write them in a journal daily.

Keep them visible, to focus on them!

Every day ask yourself, "Am I getting closer to my goal?" Is my action plan actually working or does it need adjustment? Make a chart and monitor your progress so that you can see how much closer you are to your goal.

6. PREPARE TO REVIEW EVERYDAY AND SET YOURSELF UP FOR SUCCESS

By reviewing yourself everyday, you'll discover what your strengths are and what you truly value in life, and what you really want to accomplish in the year ahead.

Allow yourself, some flexibility and enjoy the journey....after all its not only the goals that you achieve, but the journey of being consistent in working towards achieving them that is much more enjoyable.

And so, go confidently in the direction of your dreams and live the life you have imagined!

You are the planner of your own Success

Success has to be earned relentlessly and enthusiastically. It does not happen by chance. It is the result of consistent and disciplined effort. If you want to stand out, you have to do something that is beyond what everyone else is doing.

Let your effort, determination and persistence, define your success. Luck will always be a catalyst to help you sped up your journey.

Join one of our coaching sessions to understand how to develop yourself to your highest potential and become more proficient to support yourself and your team members for better performance and results.

Get in touch with us at info@achievershr.com